An Evening of Wine Tasting and Classical Music To Benefit Hospice Austin

AUSTIN, TEXAS— On Thursday, June 7th, Hospice Austin will host Vino y Virtuosos, an evening of wine tasting and classical music held at the beautiful Austin Museum of Art – Laguna Gloria from 6:30 PM to 9:00 PM. The event will include hors d'oeuvres, wine, classical music entertainment and silent auction. All proceeds will benefit Hospice Austin, a non-profit organization that has helped terminally ill patients and family members in our community for more than 25 years.

Hospice Austin is delighted to feature Viva Trio, the classical music group which has performed at the White House. The trio is headed up by Tony Morris, host of Classical Guitar Alive!, the only nationally broadcast guitar radio program in America. Classical Guitar Alive! can be heard here in Austin on KMFA 89.5 FM as well as on over 200 radio stations across the United States. Morris will be joined by other Viva Trio members, Renata Green on flute and Rebecca Browne on violin.

Funds raised help Hospice Austin provide services to all terminally ill patients who need and request hospice care, regardless of their ability to pay. For more than 25 years, Hospice Austin has provided family-centered end-of-life care that emphasizes compassion, independence, respect and dignity.
